

Andrew Clutz Joins Conway Inc. as its new Director, Corporate Investment & Analytics.

Conway Hires Andrew Clutz Following Oxford Intelligence Acquisition.

ATLANTA, April 11, 2018 —Today, Conway Inc. announced that Andrew Clutz has joined the company as its new Director, Corporate Investment & Analytics.

Prior to accepting a position at Conway, Andrew was Oxford Intelligence's Director of the Americas.

With a long history in the economic development industry, Andrew has served as the Vice President of Marketing for the Welsh Development Agency, he served as a Director for Alsace International (France) and was formerly the Managing Director of the Atlantic Resource Group, where he worked with dozens of economic promotion agencies as a consultant.

With Conway, he will focus on investment lead generation strategy and delivery as well as the further development of Conway's Analytics product and new service development.

For Conway Analytics, Andrew will work to enhance historical investment data, investment lead indicators and optimize the system's reporting and market trend analysis functions.

"Conway is thrilled to have Andrew join us as a senior member of our team," said Adam Jones-Kelley, President of Conway Inc., "Andrew has unparalleled experience in the economic development industry and will bring his depth of knowledge and experience to Conway's clients."

"We're very lucky to have him," added Jones-Kelley, "Andrew will complement the Conway team and work closely with our international offices."

"I'm looking forward to this new opportunity," said Andrew Clutz, "Conway has a comprehensive suite of products and services, some of which I will be working to develop further."

"It's an exciting time to join Conway," commented Clutz, "The company is growing and focused on providing its clients with new and innovative ways to secure corporate investment."

“I’m pleased to be part of this new era at Conway and to be part of the team.”

Based in Boston, Andrew will round-out Conway’s presence in the northeast, working closely with Conway’s New York office.

Andrew is a graduate of Hobart and William Smith Colleges and has his MBA from Northeastern University.
